DAYTON, Ohio, September 16, 1966 --- Mr. James LaVanche, Chairman of the Physical Education Department at the University of Dayton, has announced the addition of three faculty members to his department staff.

Mrs. Sally Gibbs Ballou comes to UD from Ohio State University where she recently received her M.A. in Health and Physical Education. Her teaching experience includes three years at Whitehall Yearling High School, and two years as an instructor and supervisor at summer camps. Mrs. Ballou is now an instructor of women's physical education at the University of Dayton.

Larry Lester Cathell, a graduate of West Virginia University who holds an M.S. from there as well as 12 hours toward his Ph.D., is from Morgantown, West Virginia. While at West Virginia University, he was an instructor of Physical Education from September, 1965, to August, 1966. Mr. Cathell and his wife, Linda, have one child.

Philip L. Stanley of Portsmouth, Ohio, comes to UD from Indian River Junior College where he was an Assistant Professor. He received his B.A. from Wittenberg University in 1959, his M.S. from Eastern Kentucky University in 1964, and is presently working toward his Ph.D. from Indiana University. He taught at Glenwood High School in New Boston, Ohio, from 1959-1963 and was an instructor at East Kentucky State, 1963-1964. Mr. Stanley is now Director of Men's Physical Education at UD, as well as an Assistant Professor.
